The Week in Oxford County

Dixfield called a special town meeting for 7 p. m. June 30. The purchase of the Hill-Spot Restaurant property on Main Street is to be taken up as well as the disposal of the Ludden property and the Victor Ferry property. The town plans to erect a building for a post office and offices of the municipal officers and other municipal purposes on the land if acquired.

The Paris Junior Sportsman's Club sponsored a fishing derby on the Little Androscoggin River, Sunday afternoon. The club has been organized for boys from 12 to 15.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Surplus foods were distributed this past week to eligible donees. Currently there are 36 families consisting of 145 persons on the eligible list. Items distributed were flour, lard, dry milk and canned dried egg. Next month pea beans will be available for the first time in several years. Corn meal is usually available each month, but the June quota was never delivered.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce have completed their project of painting the Community Room and are to be commended for their interest in doing a much needed project.

It is anticipated that the 1960 tax bills will be mailed the first of August.

Since the annual meeting in March a drive has been in progress to collect delinquent personal property and poll taxes. In March all persons owing taxes were sent a notice indicating that they were delinquent in their payment and informing them of methods that could be used to enforce collection resulting in extra costs. As a result of this notice a number settled their accounts. On May 9th notice was sent to those owing real estate taxes, and those that had not settled by May 26th a tax lien was filed at the Register of Deeds. Several have settled since the liens were filed.

The most troublesome are the small personal property and poll tax. Letters have been sent by certified mail with return receipt to a number of the delinquent accounts which has brought good results. Others ignored the letters and then found that the tax had been left with the town attorney or a summons and warrant had been issued.

Sincerely,
Harold L. Bean

MRS. IRENE M. FOSTER

Funeral services for Mrs. Irene Merrow Foster were held Tuesday afternoon at the Greenleaf funeral home, Rev. Clifford Laws officiating.

Mrs. Foster died in Neponset View Hospital, Dorchester, Mass., on June 25, after a long illness.

Irene Merrow Foster was born in Portland on Feb. 25, 1873, the daughter of Jefferson and Delphina King Merrow. Most of her girlhood was spent in Bethel where she attended Gould Academy in the late 1880's.

Following her marriage to Albert Foster of Charleston, Mass., she lived in Massachusetts but she always felt that Bethel was her home. She loved Bethel and was deeply appreciative of its scenery.

For many years she spent her summers at her cottage on the Middle Intervale Road.

Her girlhood friends were lifelong friends and many of them shared the gracious hospitality of her summer home.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Hall, now of Bethel.

Interment was at the Middle Intervale cemetery.

Lawrence Alton Sessions of Berlin, N. H., died Saturday night as the result of an automobile accident at Shelburne.

APPEALS BOARD RULES AGAINST MOTEL SIGN

Following a hearing at the Community Room Friday on the continuance of the sign of the Thunderbird Motor Inn at the corner of Main and Railroad Streets, a decision of the Zoning Board of Appeals was made Tuesday that the sign must be taken down by July 5.

About 40 interested citizens attended the hearing which was called on the petition of Max Zallen, Inn proprietor, seeking permission to continue the large sign which was erected last month. Mr. Zallen stated that patronage of the Inn was much increased since the sign was put up and that without such aid the traveling public would by-pass the village. It was his opinion that such a sign did not harm an unattractive area, that if objection had been made a nearby location would have been chosen, and that permission of the landowner had been obtained.

Speaking against the maintenance of the sign were Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Jordan of Lisbon, owners of adjoining property, and their attorney, Henry Hastings, who emphasized the violation of the zoning ordinance and inconvenience of the Jordan tenants caused by the loss of light and view. Others heard included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall, tenants, and a half dozen persons who felt that such a sign would be as effective in another place where it could not affect property values, distract attention of car drivers in a busy corner, and not be contrary to zoning or other regulations.

Tank Plane Explodes --Five Men Lose Lives

Five men lost their lives Monday night when KC97 tanking plane from Plattsburg, N. Y., exploded and crashed on a mountain in Newry. It is reported that the plane was about to refuel a B47 jet plane when it became ablaze, followed seconds later by the explosion.

Before the arrival of Air Force personnel, groups of local men made their way to the burning wreckage and found the bodies of three men. The other two were recovered Tuesday. The remains were taken to Berlin airport and flown to Plattsburg.

The lost crew consisted of: 1st Lt. William F. Burgess, 26, of Indian Lake, N. Y., the aircraft commander; 1st Lt. Lewis F. Turner, 25, of Spokane, Wash., the co-pilot; 2nd Lt. Raymond S. Kisonis, 26, of Waterbury, Conn., navigator; 1st Sgt. Harold E. Young, 40, of Selma, Ala., flight engineer, and T-Sgt. Robert P. Costello, 30, of Greenfield, Ill., boom operator.

The Accident Investigation Board of the Air Force, which includes personnel from points throughout the country, has been at the scene since Tuesday. They seek information regarding parts of the plane which may be found in the area south of Route 2 and west of Route 26. Any persons knowing of parts lost before the crash are asked to call Bethel Vandyke 4-2608.

Fragments of wreckage have been reported found as far as Hanover and Rumford Corner villages, and it is known that some of the early arrivals on the crash site took parts as "souvenirs" which could well be of importance in determining the cause of the disaster. It is to be hoped that the Board will have the full co-operation of all in this vital task. Several helicopters have been used in the search.

The light of the explosion and fire were noticed at points as far away as Lewiston, Bridgton and Berlin, while the accompanying sound of the blast was heard for miles in this vicinity. The emergency alarm was sounded immediately in Bethel.

The crash scene is on Jonathan Smith Mountain, in the area known as "Jonty's Ledge," and is not far from the homes of Bernard and Warren Powers on Route 26. The burned over tract of about two acres where the plane fell is within sight of the road at Middle Intervale and near Newry Corner as well as for some distance on the Newry-Upton road.

Consistency, Thou

Art a Jewel

By George Peck

EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Honorary Chairman of the Laymen's National Committee, sponsor of National Sunday School and Bible Weeks.

You've probably met this man, perhaps several of him. You know the fellow who holds to high heaven about the way the spenders at Washington dish out the taxpayers' money with such reckless abandon. He seizes every opportunity, grabs onto every soapbox from which to castigate the spineless members of congress who yield unflinchingly to the pressure groups clamoring for Federal aid for this and for that.

Then this same fellow becomes just as vocal about seeking Federal funds for his own particular community. When challenged because of this flagrant display of inconsistency, he defends his position by saying, "Well, all the other communities are getting Federal aid and I want to see that my community gets its fair share."

And then there's another man you probably know, perhaps several of him. You know the fellow who rants and raves against government in business in competition with private enterprise. He curses out TVA and the other governmental power project. He derides government having invaded the banking and insurance fields, etc. etc.

Then this same fellow goes to his local office of that Socialistic agency of the Federal Government—the Post Office—and purchases a supply of government stamped envelopes, with his name and address imprinted thereon. He knows full well that this particular government competition in the nation both large and small. But when challenged because of this flagrant display of inconsistency, he defends his position by saying, "Why make a fuss over such a small transaction? All I saved is a few cents, a few dollars at the most."

The Hon. Frank T. Bow, Ohio Republican Congressman, apparently has encountered some of these inconsistent fellows because on June 6, 1960, he read the following in the Congressional Record:

"Mr. Speaker, I am certain many members will enjoy and find a lesson in the following comment on modern American society:

"Do You Happen To Know This Man?"

"The Rotary Graph, a publication of the Westaco Rotary Club has passed along this little story, source unknown. It is almost as funny as it is tragic: "A young man lived with his parents in a public housing development. He attended public school, rode the free schoolbus and participated in the free lunch program. He entered the Army then upon discharge retained his national service insurance. He then enrolled in the State university, working part time in the State Capitol to supplement his GI education check."

"Upon graduation, he married a public health nurse and

RECEPTION FOR MARJORIE C. BROOKS

Friends and former pupils of Mrs. Brooks honored her with a reception June 18th at Community Hall, North Pownal, in observance of her retirement at the age of 70 from the Pownal school department.

MRS. MARJORIE C. BROOKS

Having taught only one room schools and all grades she had a host of friends dating back to her first assignment in 1907.

The love and affection these friends and former pupils have for her was manifested by a multitude of gifts and flowers.

An orchid corsage was presented her as she entered the hall escorted by boys of her last school. A picnic table, barbecue set, Bates bed spread, electric blanket dual control, bath set, dishes, white handbag, box of cards, hankie, pillow cases and cards with money. A silver cake plate engraved with her name and dates from her Supt. James Morrison, Jr., and Pownal School Dept. Jewelry from the Pownal teachers was given at graduation.

Mrs. Brooks graduated from the Gould Academy normal course in 1910. She is a life member of the Alumni Association. She wore the 50th year pin she received June 11 at Gould this year.

The Parents Club sponsored the reception, the committee consisting of Mrs. Helen Bowen, Mrs. Evangeline Tuttle, Mrs. Phyllis Babbidge, Mrs. Ida Sawyer, Mrs. Arlen Merrill, Mrs. Janet Davis, Mrs. Maude Small, Mrs. Sally Townsend, Mrs. Verna Libby and Mrs. Anna Slocum.

An original poem "School-days" was read by George L. Stone and the framed copy was presented to Mrs. Brooks by Mr. Stone.

bought a farm with an FHA loan and then obtained an RFC loan to go into business. A baby was born in the county hospital. He bought a ranch with the aid of the veterans' land program and obtained emergency seed from the Government.

"Later he put part of his land in the soil bank and the payments soon paid out his farm and ranch. His father and mother lived very comfortably on the ranch on their social security and old-age assistance checks. REA lines supplied electricity. The Government helped clear his land."

"The county agent showed him how to terrace it; then the Government built him a fishpond and stocked it with many

HIGHWAY USERS URGED TO BE EXTRA CAREFUL ON HOLIDAY WEEK-END

Governor John H. Reed, and Col. Robert Marx, State Police chief, joined today in urging motorists and pedestrians to exercise unusual care during the 4th of July week-end.

"We know, from sad experience, that holiday week ends are exceptionally hazardous on the road," said Governor Reed. "Just two years ago, six people were killed during the 4th of July week-end. However, it is possible to get through these periods without wholesale death on the roads. Last year, with the 4th falling on Saturday, the State experienced one highway fatality. This year the holiday falls on Monday, making a long three-day holiday and, of course, increasing the accident risk."

In a plea for acceptance of individual responsibility on the road, the Governor continued:

"Safety on the streets and highways boils down to a question of compliance with the laws and the rules of common sense. The safety of everyone on the road depends upon our willingness to accept our responsibilities in traffic. Failure to do so, imperils our own safety and that of everyone else in the traffic stream. If each of us will accept his responsibility, we can greatly reduce the number of accidents, prevent crippling injuries, and save lives. Please give us your complete cooperation."

Col. Marx announced an all-out effort by the State Police with every available man on traffic patrol.

"It is impossible to over-emphasize the need for extra caution," said the State Police fish. The Government guaranteed him a sale for his farm products at highest prices.

"Books from the public library were delivered to his door. He banked money which a Government agency insured. His children grew up, entered public schools, ate free lunches, rode free school buses, played in public parks, swam in public pools, and joined the PFA. The man owned an automobile so he favored the Federal highway program."

"He signed a petition seeking Federal assistance in developing an industrial project to help the economy of his area. He was a leader in obtaining the new post office and Federal building, and went to Washington with a group to ask the Government to build a great dam costing millions so that the area could get 'cheap' electricity."

"He petitioned the Government to give the local air-base to the county. He was also a leader in the movement to get his specific type of farming special tax write-offs and exemptions. Of course, he belonged to several farmers' organizations, but denied that they were pressure groups."

"Then one day he wrote his Congressman: 'I wish to protest these excessive governmental expenditures and attendant high taxes. I believe in rugged individualism. I think people should stand on their own two feet without expecting handouts.'

"I am opposed to all socialistic trends and I demand a return to the principles of our Constitution and the policies of States rights."

Consistency, Thou Art A Jewel.

V. A. NEWS LETTER

Veterans who get behind in payments on their GI home loans should check carefully any offers strangers may make to supply the delinquent payments if the veteran will "sign here."

M. L. Stoddard, manager of the VA Center, Togus, warned veterans to check immediately with their mortgage holders to determine whether or not the offer is legitimate.

From time to time throughout the state, he said, we at VA see evidence of the insidious "slim-slim" practice called "milking" revived. An offer to pay delinquent installments is made if the veteran will sign an "acknowledgement." Later the veteran learns he has signed a deed and must "buy" his property back at a higher price.

In another version, entire neighborhoods are canvassed to learn which veterans are having trouble meeting their GI loan payments. Then a "salesman" will offer each veteran a nominal amount for his equity, plus the privilege of buying another home in a lower cost development.

His signature is secured on a deed giving the right of possession in 60 days.

Later he is advised that no lower cost homes are available and he now faces eviction from the home he has sold.

These practices, though the intent is unethical, are conducted in such a manner as to make them legal. Stoddard pointed out.

chief, "Maine roads will be carrying a tremendous volume of vacation traffic. Failure to obey safe driving rules is always serious; at a time like this, such failure is almost certain to result in traffic tragedy. Comply with the law; don't attempt to drive after drinking; and be sure that patience, caution and common sense are your constant companions behind the wheel."

POLICE URGE DRIVERS NOT TO "DRIVE-IN-A-HURRY"

"Check your speed — check accidents!"

This was the advice offered to motorists by the State Police as they urged drivers not to drive "in-a-hurry."

Reminding drivers that "speeders lose," the enforcement organization listed seven "safe-speed reminders":

1. Slow down before you get to curves and intersections.

2. At night, drive at a speed which will allow you to stop within the range of your headlights.

3. On sand, gravel, or wet roads, drive so that there is no skidding or sudden braking.

4. In a line of traffic, stay well back of the car ahead (at least one car-length for every ten miles per hour of speed).

5. Where children are playing, be able to stop within a car-length or less.

6. When you are tired, or when you find yourself becoming inattentive, stop.

7. Be on the lookout for railroad crossing signs. When you see one, slow down. Look both ways for approaching trains before you cross the tracks.

Let me exhort everyone to do their utmost to think outside and beyond our present circle of ideas. For every idea gained is a hundred years of slavery remitted. —Richard Jeffries.

of God so often demands. Those nameless ones who: "quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong... others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were slain by the sword."

And not one of them is named!

Whenever we are inclined to think that our lives don't matter, let us remember that no life is meaningless in God's sight. That even when we cannot see the pattern that is being woven in our lives, it is there.

One day we may look back upon a period of seeming futility in our lives, and say, "Then, just when I thought I had forgotten me, God's hand was upon my life."

IT ONLY FEELS LIKE POWER STEERING
(Corvair doesn't need it)

Corvair's ingenious design simply places the engine in the rear. That means less weight on the front wheels and a lighter, happier feel in the curve of your hands. No power assist is needed in a car that's naturally nimble. See what a fresh engineering approach can do? From handling and parking ease right on, there just isn't anything ordinary or conventional about Corvair. Look at its practically flat floor, four-wheel independent suspension, fold-down rear seat. Its air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze or radiator repairs... and leaves engine heat and noise back where you've been. All these special advantages are standard in every Corvair. Just wait till you see how much they add to your driving pleasure. But why wait!

Lest We Forget!

This week has brought its full quota of drama to our community.

It is uniquely surprising that after 10 o'clock in a small town where the remark has been made that our sidewalks are pulled in by 8 o'clock, there should have been so many witnesses to what turned out to be a tragedy for five men; tragedy for them and stunning heartache for their loved ones and their flying buddies.

There were many who saw the final chapter, but a small few who saw the beginning in the Albany-Songo area—the plane apparently on fire then seemingly under control—who wonder why these men didn't have time to bail out to safety. And the question seems to have a possible answer.

Could it not be that Bethel was spared a major tragedy simply because these men chose to "ride out" the fire with the hope of bailing out when their plane was over wilderness rather than over our town?

I think there is this a very definite possibility and that, with the thought in mind, we should take time to express our grateful thanks and offer our prayers for them and their bereaved families.—Contributed.

DAYE - HEATH

Arrangements of white and pink peonies and white gladioli decorated the West Paris Universalist Church at 2 p. m. for the marriage of Miss Sheila Lorne Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Heath of West Paris, to Aubrey Bradley Daye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Daye, of Bethel. Rev. Robert Salles of Norway officiated at the double ring service.

Traditional wedding music was played on the organ by Miss Elaine Fenley. The vocalist, Miss Alice Young sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over satin, styled with a sabrina neckline, full length fitted sleeves, terminating in bridal points. The skirt was designed with ruffled tiers and lace insert at back adding a subtle interest. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a matching crown trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Jean Coffin, friend of the bride served as maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of white and blue nylon and carried a colonial bouquet of white and pink carnations. Parker Daye, Plainfield, N. J., attended his brother as best man. The ushers were Ernest Phillips of Rumford; brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Eddie Legere of Lewiston, brother-in-law of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Heath chose a blue dress with white accessories.

For an undisclosed wedding trip the bride chose a blue dress with white accessories. After July 2 they will be at home at Bethel.

Mrs. Daye is a graduate of West Paris High School and Plus School of Business, Portland. She is a member of West Paris Universalist Church and has been employed at the New England Tel. and Tel. Co., Portland.

"We have been taken to task for being 'critical' of the government." We are critical of our wife too, but we love her. Modern wives and democratic governments alike seem to require constant reminders that there are limitations to both income and credit.—Industrial Press Service

"Some people will argue that improved earnings for a company are morally wrong because they are made at the expense of employees. Actually, the record for the past ten years shows that if anything—the reverse is true. Total employee compensation has doubled. Earnings increased only 56 percent in the same period."—General Electric News.
